THE DARK LORD DEFEATED

HOGWARTS SCHOOL OF WITCHCRAFT AND WIZARDRY LEFT IN RUINS AFTER DEATH EATER ATTACK.

Reports from Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry have been confirmed to be true: the Dark Lord, He-Who-Must-Not-Be-Named, Lord Voldemort, has been defeated once and for all, by Harry Potter.

Seventeen year-old Potter had not been seen by members of the community since his disappearance from his home on the thirtieth of July 1997. He, along with friends Ron Weasley and Hermione Granger were also reported to be missing, presumably accompanying Potter.

Last night, Lord Voldemort and his Death Eater Army attacked Hogwarts Castle, ruthlessly killing over fifty students, teachers and Ministry Officials. Severus Snape, Headmaster of Hogwarts, was one of those caught in the attack. However, stories are hazy as to whether Snape was fighting against or alongside Lord Voldemort. The former Death Eater, Snape was a trusted accomplice to Albus Dumbledore, previous headmaster. In the Rookhart trial in 1981, Dumbledore was quoted as saying that "Severus Snape changed sides before the downfall of Lord Voldemort; I trust him with my life". However, with Hogwarts under the dictatorship of Voldemort since September, the introduction of Dark Arts classes and the use of Unforgivable Curses on students at the school, nobody fully knows where Snape's priorities lie.

From Hogsmeade Village, eyewitnesses claimed that they could hear the voice of Voldemort talking to them inside their heads. Madame Rosmerta, landlady of the Three Broomsticks, said that the Dark Lord spoke about "Harry Potter turning himself in and for people to dispose of the dead with dignity". How Potter defeated Lord Voldemort is still fully unknown, but sources indicate that the use of the Disarming Spell caused Voldemort's Killing Curse to backfire. Included in the battle of Hogwarts was Neville Longbottom, who bravely destroyed the Dark Lord's vicious snake, Nagini...

SHACKLEBOLT APPOINTED AS NEW MINISTER FOR MAGIC

After the events of last night and this morning, the Ministry has come to the decision to appoint Kingsley Shacklebolt as the fourteenth Minister for Magic. Shacklebolt, who was the Aide to Cornelius Fudge and Rufus Scrimgeour, started his career at the Ministry of Magic at the age of thirty, working in the Auror department. In 1995, Shacklebolt became a member of the Order of the Phoenix, a group of people, including Harry Potter and ex-Hogwarts Headmaster Albus Dumbledore, who were dedicated to stopping the dark forces of Lord Voldemort. Arthur Weasley, Head of the Office for the Detection and Confiscation of Counterfeit Defensive Spells and Protective Objects, and personal friend of Shacklebolt, said that the new Minister was...

FLYING

FORD ANGLIA

MYSTIFIES MUGGLES

Bewildered muggles were convinced they saw an old car flying over the Post Office Tower at noon in Norfolk.

Mrs. Betty Banquo spotted the Flying Ford Anglia while hanging out her washing in her locality of Blandworth. Mr. Angus Flot of Peckles reported the flying car to police at his local Finchley station. Six or seven muggles in all reported the flying Ford Anglia.

The Improper Use of Magic Office is investigating the incident.

The Wizard responsible is expected to be in for a very rough time.

Eye-witnesses Lenora Gore and Daphne Blankholin said that the accident caused by a rather feeble old wizard called Armando Dippet, a local well known for his erratic flying. He is due to take his ancient age flying test next month on his 555th birthday. Unfortunately this accident occurred a month too early. Luckily though no serious injuries were incurred.
